There were two baseball games rained out Wednesday night in the Northwestern 3A/4A Conference.

St. Stephens and Bunker Hill, Fred T. Foard and Newton-Conover had their games postponed. No make up dates have been announced. The St. Stephens Bunker Hill game was a second attempt. The original playing date in early March was victimized by rain. There's two more games on the schedule Thursday night. Alexander Central travel to Davie County and Hibriten travels to West Lincoln. The Pioneers have an open date on Friday as second round play begins in the NW3A/4A. WHS entertains North Davidson in a non-conference game Saturday. Our coverage begins at 2 pm on Oldies 100.7 FM.
