Savanna Wood has picked up right where she left off last season.

The Watauga High sophomore, who qualified for the state meet last season, fired a 40 on the opening round and finished second in the season-opening Northwestern 3A/4A Conference match at Orchard Hills Golf Course in Granite Falls, NC. Wood finished two shots behind the leading medalist, Abbey Hartsel of Alexander Central, who fired a 38. Team-wise, WHS finished third with a score of 150; Alexander Central won the meet with a 129. South Caldwell finished second with a 145. Rounding out the scoring for WHS, Carrie Hayes had a 53, Rebecca Shoemake had a 57, Emily Rochelle and Tasha Wilson each had a 59. The Pioneers will host a NW3A/4A meet at the Boone Golf Club next Tuesday, September 20.
