

Monday's LMC-King quarterfinal moved up to 2 p.m.

Written by Whitney Noble

Monday, 29 October 2012 05:14

The start time for Monday's scheduled Conference Carolinas Women's Soccer Tournament quarterfinal between top-seeded Lees-McRae College and eighth-seeded King College has been moved to 2 p.

m. on Tate Field due to the threat of inclement weather, announced Lees-McRae Director of Athletics Craig McPhail Sunday.

Lees-McRae will provide live stats and a video webcast (if weather conditions allow) for those unable to attend the match, the links for which can be found below. The Bobcats won the only regular season meeting between the sides on October 23, edging the Tornado by a 1-0 margin.