The North Carolina High School Athletic Association has announced the game times for its 2012 state football championship games, which will once again be played at three different sites. BB&T is the sponsor of the NCHSAA state championship football games. Three games will be played at BB&T Field in Winston-Salem and at Carter-Finley Stadium in Raleigh, while two finals are set for Kenan Stadium in Chapel Hill. The four NCHSAA classifications are subdivided for the football championships, with all four being subdivided since 2002.

The 4-A classification will play in Kenan Stadium, with the 4-A championship scheduled for Friday night, November 30, at 7:30 pm and the 4-AA final at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning, December 1. At BB&T Field, there will be three games on Saturday, with the 2-A game at 11 am, followed by the 3-A final at 3 pm and the 3-AA championship at 7 pm.

The same game times will be utilized at Carter-Finley Stadium on December 1. The 11 am game will be for the 1-A title, followed by the 1-AA contest at 3 pm and the 2-AA game at 7 pm.
