

Caldwell Commits To Virginia

Written by Mike Kelly
Thursday, 08 November 2012 10:35

Goalkeeper Jeff Caldwell, who received an invitation last summer and made the USA 17-and-Under National Team, has verbally committed to attend the University of Virginia on a full scholarship in the fall semester of 2014. Caldwell, who was the starting goalkeeper for Watauga High before he left in July for Team USA, has made five international starts in a pair of tournaments in Spain, and Argentina. He officially made the Team USA 20-man roster on August 24, and he earned a spot on the tournament's Best XI team in Spain, September 29-October 6.

Team USA, which is coached by Richie Williams, will play an exhibition game against the University of South Florida at Corbett Stadium in Tampa, FL., Friday night, November 9 at 7 p.m. Team USA is based in Brandenton, FL.

REMAINING GAMES FOR 2012

Nov. 28, vs. Brazil Under-17 Men 5 p.m. ET Premier Sports Campus
Lakewood Ranch, Fla.

Nov. 30, vs. Turkey Under-17 Men 5 p.m. ET Premier Sports Campus
Lakewood Ranch, Fla.

Dec. 2, vs. Portugal Under-17 Men 5 p.m. ET Premier Sports Campus
Lakewood Ranch, Fla.