Appalachian State University will partner with the Boone Chamber of Commerce for the Chamber & Community Showcase on Wednesday, November 28th when Appalachian men's basketball hosts Duquense at the Holmes Center.

Chamber of Commerce businesses will be featured throughout the concourse starting at 5:30 p.m. when the doors open to the public.

The Showcase is an opportunity for fans to see what local businesses have to offer through a fun-filled evening recognizing the great things happening in Watauga County.

All tickets for the game will be $5 and can be purchased online at GoASU.com, at the Holmes Center ticket office Monday - Friday 9-4:00, or the night of the game at the northwest and southwest entrances to the Holmes Center.
