The Watauga High men's soccer team, which enjoyed its best season in 13 years, had five players named to the Northwestern 3A/4A All-Conference

Team. Alex Parsons, Logan Raichle, Jake Chasteen, Cam Linville, Ryan Hellenbrand and Justin Wolfe earned all-conference honors.

The Pioneers (18-4-3) reached the state quarterfinals before they were eliminated by Asheville-Roberson on November 10. It was WHS' first trip to the state quarterfinals since 1999. Hickory, who nosed out WHS to win the regular season championship in the NW3A/4A had seven players selected. The Red Tornadoes (27-2) lost to Jacksonville in the Class 3A state championship game Saturday in Raleigh. Carlos Sevilla of Hickory was named the Player of the Year.

Luke Bruce of St. Stephens was named the Offensive Player of the Year; Andrew Barton of the Indians was named the Defensive Player of the Year. Cory Morgan of St. Stephens was named the Coach of the Year.
