The Watauga High wrestling team remained winless in dual competition Thursday with a pair of setbacks at a tri-meet at Avery. The Pioneers lost to Avery, 49-27, and to Ashe County, 42-36.

Demetrius Coffey paced the Pioneers (0-4 in duals) with a pair of wins, both pinfalls, at 132 pounds as he remained unblemished on the year with a perfect 12-0 record. Mark Townsend went 2-0 with a pinfall at 113, Gus Coffey was 2-0 with pinfall at 126, Jake Page went 2-0 with a pinfall at 160-170.

Gabriel Irwin at 152-160, Jeremy Critcher at 195, were both 1-1 with a pinfall. Jackson Lawley was 1-1 at 220 pounds.

The Pioneers travel to Sparta, N.C., for the Alleghany Duals on Saturday.
