

Former Mountaineers in the NFL: Week 14

Written by Mike Flynn

Wednesday, 12 December 2012 17:14

Seven former Appalachian State University football student-athletes are currently in the National Football League and five are members of their teams' active 53-man rosters. Below is a look at how the former Mountaineers fared in Week 14 of

NFL action:

DB Corey Lynch (San Diego Chargers) made his second-straight start in San Diego's 34-24 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. He recorded three tackles and a pass breakup.

RB Travaris Cadet (New Orleans Saints) returned six kickoffs for a total of 123 yards with a long of 26 in the Saints' 52-27 loss to the New York Giants.

WR Armanti Edwards (Carolina Panthers) was slotted as the Panthers' No. 3 receiver and tallied one catch for seven yards in Carolina's 30-20 upset win over the Atlanta Falcons.

WR Brian Quick (St. Louis Rams) hauled in one catch for six yards in St. Louis' 15-12 road victory over the Buffalo Bills.

OL Dan Kilgore (San Francisco 49ers) saw action as a substitute and provided a key block on San Francisco's second touchdown of the afternoon in a 27-13 victory over the Miami Dolphins.

DE Jason Hunter (Denver Broncos) and LB D.J. Smith (Green Bay Packers) remain on their respective teams' injured reserve lists after suffering season-ending injuries.

Photo Courtesy: Brian Quick, ASU Athletics