Watauga High boys basketball coach Rob Sanders has announced that the Fred T. Foard game postponed on December 18 will be made up on Thursday, January 17 in Newton, N.C. And with the addition of that game, the WHS boys and girls will play a stretch of six games in ten days beginning with a road game at Wilkes Central on Tuesday, January 8.

The West Caldwell game that was postponed on December 20 will be made up at a later date. A decision on when that game will be played should be decided after the holidays, according to WHS girls coach Klay Anderson.
