That best describes the Watauga High boys swimming team, which captured the Northwestern 3A/4A Conference championship Wednesday night at the Hickory Foundation YMCA. The Pioneers entered the final event of the championship meet, the 400-freestyle relay, owning a two-point lead on the field. That squad, led by Forrest Brown, Noah Allain, Brandon Michelsen, Marcus Funston, settled the issue by winning the event in 3:39.00, besting St. Stephens, which finished second in 3:46.34, to win the league title by eight points.

Ironically, that was the only event WHS won, but it handed the Pioneers the conference title. WHS finished with a team score of 302; the Indians finished second with 294 points. South Caldwell and Hickory tied for third with 246 points.

Unfortunately, the WHS girls held a three point lead going into the 400 freestyle relay (Darby Middlebrook, Carson Middlebrook, Julianna Silver, Anne Taylor), but St. Stephens captured the league title as the Indians burned up the course in the conference-record time of 3:54.95; WHS finished second in 3:56.05.

That effort handed St. Stephens a three-point victory (313-310) and the conference title.

"While we had hoped for two victories, I could not be more proud of each team," said WHS coach David Gragg. "Going into the season, I thought the men would have a much stronger chance of winning than the women. I knew how we had performed at the past few conference meets, but the ladies completely stepped it up this year and made a strong run at winning.

"I know they were disappointed, but it all came down to a few finishes here and there that determined who won. The breaks went our way in a few events and fell against us in others. I felt my assistants Tera Darner and Will Bennett had the kids ready to go fast. That was all I could ask of this team. I am glad they all gave what they had. It was crazy. It was insane. But it was all worth it."

The night started off to a booming start as WHS' 200 medley relay team (Doria Kosmala, Carson Middlebrook, Anne Taylor, and Darby Middlebrook) won the event and set a new conference record as they finished first in 2:01.01.

Darby Middlebrook won the 200 freestyle (2:03.10); Taylor won two events, the 50-(26.24) and 100-freestyle (57.49). Carson Middlebrook finished second in both the 200 IM (2:29.72) and 100 breast stroke (1:15.09). Julianna Silver was third in the 100 breaststroke and sixth in the 200 freestyle; Kosmala finished fourth in the 100 backstroke and seventh in the 100 butterfly. She was joined by Maddy Allain who finished eighth place finish in both the 100 butterfly and the 200 IM. Dakota Wilson finished sixth in the 50 freestyle. Senior Tori Placentra finished sixth in the 100 backstroke.

For the boys, seniors Marcus Funston (fourth 50 freestyle, second 100 butterfly) and Forrest Brown (second 200 IM, third 100 backstroke) led a senior dominated team to a victory in the final conference meet of the season. Noah Allain was sixth in the 50 freestyle and fifth in the 100 butterfly.

"Adam Patton picked up unexpected points in the 100 Free (seventh) and 100 Back (eighth) that really helped our team score," Gragg said. "Brandon Michelsen had strong efforts in the 100 and 200 Free events (he finished fifth in both), and seniors Chris Winkler (200 IM/100

Back), Peter Vandenberg (200/500 Free), Josh Anderson (200/500 Free), and Josh Herman (200 IM/100 Breast) secured valuable points for us. "It was only fitting that in the final race, four seniors (Forrest Brown, Allain, Michelsen, and Funston) had the weight of the meet on their shoulders, and they showed what it took to come out on top."
