Lees-McRae won the battle on the glass in dominating fashion, outmuscling Pfeiffer by a 44-25 margin on the boards, including a 14-6 advantage on the offensive end of the floor. The Bobcat bench outscored the Falcons reserves, 52-21, in the contest, while tallying 22 second chance points.

Brown would answer for the Bobcats, knocking down a trio of treys to spearhead an 11-2 surge that gave Lees-McRae a 25-18 lead at the 5:59 mark. The run was highlighted by one of the plays of the night, a nothing-but-net three-pointer by Brown off a textbook no-look pass by Corey Young (Bluff City, Tenn.) with 6:51 left in the period.

Lees-McRae would continue to dictate play over the final five and a half minutes of the half, closing the period with a 14-8 run to take a 39-26 advantage into the intermission. Pfeiffer countered quickly in the second half, opening the period with a 7-2 spurt to cut the margin to 41-33 on a McNair lay-in with 17:56 to play.

The Bobcats answered with a 16-7 run, pushing the lead to 57-40 following a Lamot triple and a Tillman tip-in with 10:54 left on the clock. The Bobcats would close out the win in style, holding the Falcons at bay while outscoring Pfeiffer by an 18-7 margin over the final five and a half minutes en route to the 83-60 victory.
