Appalachian State University football student-athletes and coaches will receive their 2012 Southern Conference championship rings during the program's SoCon Championship Banquet on Saturday, March 23 at the Holmes Center. The Championship Banquet includes a catered dinner, video presentation, remarks from coaches and student-athletes and the presentation of the 2012 SoCon championship rings to each student-athlete.

Prior to the dinner and program, a social hour will be held on the Holmes Center concourse, featuring a silent auction of autographed Appalachian State football memorabilia and the opportunity to interact with student-athletes, coaches and other members of the Appalachian family.

Tickets for the SoCon Championship Banquet are available to the general public for $50 per person. To register, contact the Appalachian State athletics ticket office at (828) 262-2079.
