Appalachian State University will hold a press conference on Wednesday at 4 p.m. to make a major announcement regarding the University and its athletics program. The press conference will be held on the Club Level (fifth floor) of the Appalachian Athletics Center (building adjacent to west side of Kidd Brewer Stadium that also houses press box and athletics offices).

The press conference is CLOSED to the general public. However, fans can watch the press conference live and in its entirety on GoASU TV (GoASU.com/goasutv). The live video stream will be made available FREE of charge. The press conference will also be carried on many Appalachian IMG Sports Network radio affiliates across the region. A full list of affiliates airing the press conference will be updated at GoASU.com as they are confirmed.
