The Appalachian State University football team will have its season opener at East Carolina televised on the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network on Saturday, September 5 at noon.

MASN covers a seven-state area from Pennsylvania to North Carolina, If you have Direct TV, the game can be seen on channel 640; if you have Dish Network, the game can be seen on channel 432.

The only other game time set on the ASU schedule is a 1 pm kick-off against The Citadel on October 3. The Mountaineers will release game times for their six home games once the Southern Conference TV package is completed later this summer.
