

App State Football Announces 2010 Schedule

Written by Adam Hicks

Tuesday, 12 January 2010 10:31

The App State football team will begin their quest to win a sixth consecutive conference championship on Saturday, September 4, when they kick off the 2010 season at Finley Stadium at UT Chattanooga.

The ASU athletic department announced their 2010 Mountaineer Football schedule today.

The Mountaineers have home matchups against familiar non-conference foes Jacksonville and North Carolina Central, as well as SoCon rivals Elon, the Citadel, Furman, and Wofford.

The Apps will finish the regular season on November 20 when they take a trip to the Swamp in Gainesville to tangle with the Florida Gators.

Ticket information and the 2009 ASU Football schedule are posted online at www.GoASU.com.

*Photo courtesy of Phillip Greene