

ASU Wideout Arrested on Alcohol-Related Charges

Written by Mike Kelly
Friday, 12 March 2010 08:46

1:45 p.m. - App State wide receiver CoCo Hillary and his younger brother Aramis were arrested on alcohol-related charges in Lexington County, South Carolina by the West Columbia Police Department.

Their vehicle was traveling 46 miles per hour in a 35 miles per hour zone.

Aramis is 19 years old and is the back-up quarterback at the University of South Carolina.

ASU Athletic Director Charlie Cobb and ASU Football Coach Jerry Moore were both out of town for spring break according to ASU Sports Information Director Mike Flynn.

CoCo Hillary, a redshirt senior, has 116 catches for 1,588 yards and nine touchdowns in his career. His season was cut short by a knee injury last fall. He played in eight games with six starts. He caught 37 balls for 514 yards and four touchdowns. His best season came in 2008 where he had 56 receptions for 756 yards and five touchdowns.

*Photo courtesy of Phillip Greene

ASU Wideout Arrested on Alcohol-Related Charges

Written by Mike Kelly

Friday, 12 March 2010 08:46
