

Avery Fire Units Back-up Carter County at House Fire

Written by Steve Frank
Monday, 12 July 2010 07:25

Avery fire units were asked to cross the state line to help a with Carter County house fire. The 8am call was to a house--fully involved in flames--near the TN 143 and Cove Creek Road intersection, south of Roan Mountain. The assistance was canceled after Carter County units determined the house was abandoned. The investigation into the fire will be conducted by Tennessee authorities.