

Energy Efficiency Bill passes!

Written by

Thursday, 02 August 2007 20:00

By a vote of 47-1, the Senate gave its final approval to a measure that will require the state's utilities to provide 12.5 percent of their retail electricity from renewable fuel and efficiency measures by 2017.

The bill will make North Carolina the first state in the Southeast to set a renewable-efficiency standard. Its next stop is Governor Mike Easley's desk.