

New River Committee names new Board members

Written by

Monday, 06 August 2007 20:00

Two new members have been named to the National Committee for the New River (NCNR).

raig Teller of Hillsville, Virginia and Henry H. Doss of Todd will each serve a three-year term on the 13-member board. The Committee is a non-profit organization that operates in the New River watershed in North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia. NCNR works to protect land important to the New River's health and advocates for the river's future through its communities. The organization also conducts monitoring, restoration and cleanup projects for the operating area. Utilizing over 800 volunteers, the committee has removed over 46,260 tons of trash from the river. More information can be found at the committee's website, www.ncnr.org