

Carolina West Wireless gives to Ashe County Humane Society

Written by

Monday, 06 August 2007 20:00

Last week Carolina West Wireless presented Ashe County Humane Society with a check for over $250.

The donation represents half their activation fees for the month of June. Ashe County Humane Society works to educate Ashe citizens about the importance of spaying and neutering pets. Currently in the middle of a capital campaign to pay for its new complex, the Society also offers pet adoption services.