

Victim Airlifted from Linville Wreck Site

Written by Steve Frank
Monday, 07 March 2011 15:27

The driver of a Buick SUV was airlifted to the Johnson City Medical Center after a single-vehicle wreck near Linville. The 11:50am wreck sent Avery Medics and Linville Fire/Rescue to the scene, and with the assessment of injuries, the driver was rushed to Cannon Memorial to meet with Wings 1 chopper for transport to Johnson City Tennessee. The accident was only about a half-mile from the Linville Station. The state patrol is investigating.