

Sugar Grove Man Arrested For Breaking Into Cars

Written by Christie James

Thursday, 22 March 2007 02:50

The Boone Police have arrested a Sugar Grove man on charges related to breaking and entering multiple vehicles. 23-year-old Brandon Lee Bowles is alleged to have broken into motor vehicles at the Greenway, Boone mall and Watauga High School in October and November of last year.

He has been charged with five felony counts of breaking or entering a motor vehicle, one count of misdemeanor larceny and one felony count of financial card theft. Bowles turned himself into the Boone Police department. He was given a $150,000 secured bond and a May 5th court date.