

Autopsy to answer questions

Written by

Thursday, 09 August 2007 07:07

According to a statement released by Boone Police Department at noon, investigators hope a preliminary autopsy will help determine what happened to a man whose body was discovered this morning in a pickup truck. The truck was parked near the dumpster on Charlotte Ann Lane in the Appalachian South Apartment complex. The call came through at 8:23 this morning when maintenance workers discovered the body. Foul play is not suspected.