

West Jefferson: Handpicked by Governor

Written by

Thursday, 09 August 2007 20:00

Governor Mike Easley has chosen West Jefferson to participate in the North Carolina Small Town Main Street program.

Six small towns in North Carolina were chosen to participate in the program- which was implemented to revitalize downtowns statewide. While the program has no funding attached, it does offer resources and assistance to small towns. A public meeting in September will formally announce the designation and answer questions about how the program can benefit West Jefferson specifically.