

Open casting call for film

Written by

Thursday, 16 August 2007 20:00

TAXI, an independent film by award-winning director Ramin Bahrani, will be partially shot in Blowing Rock- and the Winston Salem-based company is looking for extras.

Auditions for men, women, couples and families are being held Saturday, August 25 and September 1 from 9:30 a.m. until noon, manager Summer Shelton says.

"We welcome everyone to come out and support, not only our independent film, but also the arts in the High Country area," Shelton says.

Auditions will be conducted at the Hayes Performing Arts Center.