

Federal help for Spruce Pine

Written by

Sunday, 26 August 2007 20:00

Spruce Pine business owners are getting help on a federal level, weeks after arson gutted downtown.

The U.S. Small Business Administration has approved Governor Mike Easley's request to declare Spruce Pine a disaster area. With this declaration, businesses can apply for low interest loans to help pay operating expenses during the rebuilding process. More than fifty businesses were affected by the early August fires.