

Shooting charge issued in Caldwell

Written by

Thursday, 06 September 2007 20:00

A Caldwell County man has been charged in a domestic-related shooting. King's Creek's 38-year-old Timothy Allen Philyaw was hospitalized with an apparently self-inflicted gunshot wound he received after he allegedly shot his wife, 27-year-old Tina Philyaw in the arm. Timothy Philyaw was charged with felony assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill inflicting serious injury.