

German Shepherd attacks 3-year-old

Written by

Monday, 10 September 2007 21:06

A 3-year-old mauled by a German Shepherd Sunday is at Brenner's Children's Hospital in Winston Salem.

No charges have been issued against the owner of the dog, who was a relative. The attack occurred on Prevette Ridge Road in Wilkes County around 9:30 a.m. It is Aisling Broadcasting's policy not to release the names of juveniles. The 3-year-old's condition is unknown at this time. Deputies were able to apprehend the dog without incident.