

Sawmills woman faces trafficking charges

Written by

Monday, 10 September 2007 21:08

Caldwell County officers have arrested a Sawmills woman for “pill-pushing.”

It's part of an ongoing campaign to prevent prescription medication abuse and distribution. 22-year-old Tabitha Renee Brookshire has been charged with two counts of felonious trafficking in an opiate-based substance, two additional charges dealing with the drug Xanax. Brookshire was held under a $9,500 secured bond.