

New Watauga High School to break ground

Written by

Wednesday, 12 September 2007 19:00

September 19 is the big day for fans of the new Watauga High School.

The groundbreaking ceremony is at 4:30 at the new site on Daniel Boone Extension- and Superintendent Dr. Bobbie Short could not be more excited.

She wants to see everyone out for the event.

If all goes well, the school is expected to open in 2010.