

Small Towns Meeting: West Jefferson

Written by

Monday, 17 September 2007 20:34

This summer we told you West Jefferson had been selected by the North Carolina Department of Commerce to be part of the Small Town Main Street Program.

It's all part of a national program to provide assistance to towns to promote downtown revitalization. Monday, representatives from the program will be in West Jefferson to answer questions and discuss downtown's future. The meeting starts at 6:30 at the Ashe County Arts Center. Refreshments will be served.