

Dole announces Catawba Grant

Written by

Tuesday, 18 September 2007 19:00

---

Yesterday, U.S. Senator Elizabeth Dole announced that the Catawba Valley Community College in Hickory will be awarded $1 million in Economic Development Administration investments to build job training centers. The grant should help the College construct a healthcare training facility that will provide a simulated hospital on campus. The project, which also includes a grant to the City of Laurinburg, will create 859 new jobs and generate private investment in excess of $123 million.