

New Watauga High School Breaks Ground: Today!

Written by

Tuesday, 18 September 2007 19:00

Watauga County Schools are in celebration mode today.

The new Watauga High School will break ground at 4:30 today during special ceremony. Fans of the new high school will gather at its site on Daniel Boone Extension. It's a big deal, superintendent Dr. Bobbie Short says.

She hopes the whole community will come out and show its support for the project.

A shuttle will transport attendees from Hardin Park Elementary School. Short expects a crowd.