

Roadwork on 105

Written by

Tuesday, 18 September 2007 19:00

Milling and resurfacing operations may cause delays this week on Highway 105.

From the Bypass to Shulls Mill Road, roadwork started last night and will continue through September 30. While the work will be performed exclusively during nighttime hours, traffic delays are still expected and alternate routes are recommended.