

A break-in on White Plains Road in the Roaring River Community has Wilkes County deputies searching the area.

The break-in happened just before noon today, and it is unclear whether or not items were taken.

The victim in the case actually chased the suspect, but lost the vehicle. Wilkes County deputies are looking for a red mustang registered to someone in Surry County. Anyone with information on the vehicle is encouraged to contact law enforcement.