

Ashe High Teacher Suspended, Investigation Underway

Written by Steve Frank

Wednesday, 22 February 2012 07:16

The Ashe County Sheriff's Office has made a brief release, apparently responding to citizen concerns over the suspension of a teacher at Ashe County High School and a criminal investigation underway. Sheriff James Williams confirmed that his department is investigating allegations of what they called "inappropriate conduct" between a teacher and student at the High School. According to Sheriff James Williams, the faculty member involved has been suspended, and the investigation continues into the case. With that, the release said that no further information can be released to the public at this time.