

Saturday fatality on 18

Written by

Monday, 24 September 2007 21:08

---

A Moravian Falls man was killed Saturday morning on Highway 18 North when his vehicle turned left off Byrd Road. The accident report suggests that the driver, 83-year-old Johnny Faw, failed to see a southbound car driven by Ella Foster Pardue of North Wilkesboro. All four of the vehicular occupants were transported to Baptist Medical Center. Faw died of his injuries. Pardue has been released, and two passengers are expected to recover.