

Discovery Channel comes to Caldwell County

Written by

Wednesday, 26 September 2007 19:00

Earlier this week, Caldwell County had some big visitors: representatives of “Koppel on Discovery” spent Tuesday interviewing people at Bernhardt Furniture and Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute for a documentary. The documentary will focus on the effects of globalization and how America’s economy is connected to China. The completed piece is expected to be four hours and will air on the Discovery Channel.