Take a great weekend weatherwise, add in great food, a superb wine selection, and a few thousand of your closest friends, and you've got the Blue Ridge Wine and Food Fest. Starting with the Fire on the Rock Chef Challenge Wednesday through the 'uncorking' Thursday, Friday's wine dinners and Saturday's grand tasting, it was a grand festival, bringing thousands to the High Country. Activities wound down with Sunday's events and plans for Blue Ridge Wine & Food Fest 2013.
