And there's exciting news in the realm of education, with Darcy Grimes, a Watauga Schools third grade teacher from Bethel Elementary is North Carolina's Teacher of the Year. Grimes won the district teacher of the year honor months back and went to Raleigh and other locations for the state competition

—and is the first from Watauga to win the state honor. She will spend much of next year away from Watauga, traveling the state in her new role as teacher of the year, and will compete for national teacher of the year, representing North Carolina.
