

$3,500 reward for info on Anderson case

Written by

Sunday, 07 October 2007 19:00

Emily Anderson's friends and family have increased the reward for information about her murder.

$3,500 will go to anyone with information leading to a conviction of the person or people responsible for Anderson's murder. Anderson's body was discovered in the toolbox of her truck on January 7, 2006. Anderson's husband, Jerry, was charged with her murder and went to trial in May. A mistrial was declared on July 20, and the district attorney's office has not decided whether to retry him. Investigators continue to call Jerry Anderson their primary suspect. The Andersons ran a dairy farm in Sawmills. Anyone with information on the case should contact Caldwell County Crimestoppers at 828-758-8300.