

Fire at Tyson Feed Plant

Written by

Wednesday, 10 October 2007 08:45

Wilkes County firefighters had a busy night thanks to a blaze at the Tyson Feed Processing Plant in Roaring River. Departments responded to the fire just after 10 p.m. and were on the scene past midnight. No one was hurt in the blaze, and no official cause has been released.