Tennessee and North Carolina authorities are still seeking a man they say jumped over a fence at a Johnson County detention Center.

Robert Randall DeLuca is alleged to have discarded his orange jumpsuit and fled in a gray or blue Toyota or Nissan. Authorities say he could have been heading for Boone, his last known address. According to Detective Dee Dee Rominger, DeLuca had not lived in Boone in "awhile," however, and there has been no sign of the white male. DeLuca is 5'11" tall and weighs about 165 pounds. He has brown hair and green eyes. A mug shot is available at www.goblueridge.net

. Anyone with information on his whereabouts is asked to call law enforcement immediately.
