

Troopers still investigating morning wreck

Written by

Monday, 29 October 2007 05:32

Traffic was rerouted on 421 for several hours today due to an early morning tractor-trailer accident that left one person dead. The wreck occurred just after 7:30 a.m. this morning and involved multiple cars and a tractor-trailer, Watauga deputies say. Highway Patrol is not releasing details at this time, but one fatality has been reported. The identity of the victim has been established and is being withheld pending notification of next of kin. The accident is still under investigation, troopers say.

The accident happened between the greenbox container site and Valle Pantry on Highway 421 North.