Blowing Rock Town Council candidates will appear in a public forum tonight at 7 p.m. at the Hayes Performing Arts Center.

Unopposed mayoral incumbent J.B. Lawrence will also participate- but the forum's mainly about candidates for the two available seats on the Council. State Representative Cullie Tarleton will give opening remarks. There will be an opportunity for the public to ask questions. The event is sponsored by the non-partisan Blowing Rock Leadership Challenge, and refreshments will be provided.
