

Man falls 15 feet

Written by

Monday, 29 October 2007 08:49

Breaking news from Avery County- a construction worker fell fifteen feet at the Lodges of Elkmont.

Few details have been released about the incident, but a landing zone for a WINGS medical transport helicopter was been established at the Old Cannon Hospital. Sources say the man was part of the roofing crew. The man was transported to Johnson County Medical Center. The Lodges have no official comment this afternoon, but hope to have a statement for the press in the morning.