

Fugitive caught on 421

Written by

Wednesday, 31 October 2007 12:04

An unidentified fugitive has been apprehended on 421 near the Tennessee state line.

Watauga deputies are on scene and have yet to release the name of the fugitive, but do say he is not wanted man Robert Randall DeLuca. A source within the Sheriff's Office said everything happened "very fast" and that a minor vehicle accident contributed to the incident. Currently, Sheriff Len Hagaman is on the scene. We'll have more on this breaking story as information becomes available.