

Family Hopes Cash Will Bring Leads in Homicide

Written by Steve Frank

Thursday, 03 January 2013 12:07

An unsolved murder case in Granite Falls has a new development with family members offering a large cash reward to catch the killer. The sons of Tony Myers showed a briefcase filled with hundred dollar bills in hopes of learning who killed the 65-year old back in 2008. The family says they are prepared to give someone one hundred thousand dollars for information leading to an arrest and conviction in the three year old murder case. Someone shot and killed Myers during an armed robbery at the Granite Falls Gun and Pawn shop that Myers owned in December of 2008.

photo; WSOC-TV