

ASU receives grant to host educators

Written by

Tuesday, 06 November 2007 18:00

Appalachian State University has been selected to host two groups of Egyptian educators- and is receiving $213,652 for accommodating the visitors during their 15-day stay. The educators are studying comprehensive school reform models used in the United States. The project is funded by a $213,652 grant from the U.S. Agency for International Development through the Academy for Educational Development.